May 5th, 2020 - sybille bedford's first novel a legacy is absolutely brilliant it's fictionalized history and biography of a highly sophisticated strata of pre WW1 cosmopolitan society that's as dead as a dodo. I read it some time ago and it admittedly stimulated high expectations which a favourite of the gods doesn't altogether live up to. It's not that favourite isn't a very good enjoyable novel. It most assuredly is yet there is something superficial and even a bit soap opera-ish about it. I don't think it's a favourite of the gods.

May 31st, 2020 - this is my second novel by stephanie thornton and with it she has rocketed her way to the very top of my shortlist of favorite historical fiction writers. Daughter of the gods is well written, well researched, exciting and fascinating. All things that I love to see in my historical fiction. The fact that thornton focuses on Hatshepsut, one of the greatest pharaohs of the ancient Egypt and who happened to be a woman, just added to this book's appeal.
